A Pro-Am Worthy of Consideration

Celebrating almost five decades of competition at Mauna Kea Resort on the Big Island of Hawaii

BY MARK PAZDUR, PUBLISHER, EXECUTIVE GOLFER

KOHALA COAST, HAWAII: I imagine you are always looking for a new destination for your next golf trip. That's why Executive Golfer has partnered with Mauna Kea Resort to bring you and your golf pro a golf travel experience of a lifetime. Traveling to a new destination is fraught with concerns. Will the hotel live up to expectations? Is the tournament professionally run?

I would like to invite you — along with your golf pro and two other members — to compete in Mauna Kea Resort's 42nd annual Pro-Am. Our promise is to deliver an unrivaled competition. We have the location and experience to deliver. This year, Mauna Kea Resort will celebrate its 50th anniversary.

Fifty years ago, tycoon Laurance Rockefeller opened Mauna Kea Beach Hotel on a desolate, crescent-shaped sandy beach 30 miles from Kona. Word quickly spread among society's elite about a "special place" called Mauna Kea Resort. After only seven months, the hotel established itself as one of America's best.

Mauna Kea Resort remains a timeless icon of luxury. Join us and experience the resort's award-winning services and one of Hawaii's best beaches.

"I have played most of the world's finest courses and Mauna Kea is one of the best. It's attractive, challenging, and fun to play." — ARNOLD PALMER

During a 2008 course renovation, Rees Jones, the "Open Doctor," redesigned his father's course. The course was lengthened, bunkers were enlarged, and greens rebuilt. One hole left with little change was Mauna Kea's 3rd hole over the ocean, considered one of the most iconic holes in golf.
